ARTERIORR'S CORE

BHAVIKA AGARWAL
Principal Designer

Designing is my happy place and my wings of freedom that lets me channel my creativity. After graduating from Raffles Design Institute, Singapore and gaining plenty of international experience, I believe I understand the hopes and aspirations that goes into making someone's reverie take form. Design is a reflection of who a person is and what they believe in and it gives me immense pleasure to be the medium to deliver this piece of happiness to them.

Arteriorr's backbone, heart, brain and soul is it's team. We are so happy and proud to have such talented and hard working team members who have been with Arteriorr giving it strength and definition every step of the way.
